

Guidelines for a good recommendation letter

- At least one recommendation letter is REQUIRED to complete your scholarship program application.
- The recommendation letter should be written by one of the following; high school teacher, head teacher or the sponsoring organization
- Letters should be written within the period for the 'call for applications' for each specific intake. The letter must be current, official, stamped, signed and addressed to the Program Director.
- Recommendation letters should not be written by family members.

Recommender must;

- Include the full name of the applicant.
- Indicate how long they have known the applicant.
- Describe the capacity and nature in which they have known the applicant.
- Discuss the applicant's academic ability, social and leadership skills.
- Describe why the applicant would be a strong candidate for this specific scholarship